With explicit reference to the stimulus and your own knowledge, discuss a philosophical issue related to the question of what it means to be human.

2. Read the following excerpt and develop your response as indicated below.

[...] the human is a paradox. As “rational animals”, we are the only species that straddles the divide between matter and spirit. We do not just inhabit the material world – we interpret it, discern order within it, derive meaning from it and act decisively upon it. [...] our desire draws us towards a source of joy beyond the horizon of this mortal life, which allows us to know and enjoy the things of creation in a balanced and harmonious way.
